

Newsletter

INCHEON NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

December 2022 Vol 8

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

1. Season's Greetings by INU's President
2. New Faces at International Office
3. Farewell 2022 Fall Exchange Students
4. 2023 Graduate School Admission Orientation for international students
5. TCS and INU Signed an Agreement on Internship Program
6. International student experience "Kimchi making day"
7. INU and KNAU sign MoU for students and faculty mobility programs

INU
인천대학교

“Adieu 2022”

Season's Greetings from President Park

As 2022 comes to an end, we want to thank you all for your continued support. Over the last year, INU's faculty and staff have demonstrated an unwavering commitment to becoming a higher education leader in Korea. We are very proud that our academic activities have progressed impressively. We have so much to be grateful for. I wish you and your loved one's Happy New Year.

Jong-tae Park
President, Incheon National University

New Faces, New Positions at the International Office

I am thrilled to announce that I have joined the International Office to lead the inbound exchange student programs. This is my second time to work at the International Office since 2021.

Thank you all for the warm welcome!

Yerim Heo

I am super excited by the prospect of working at the international office in charge of the English and Japanese programs.

I look forward to meeting you all so feel free to drop by and say hello!

Sol Seo

“Good Bye” 2022 Fall Exchange Students

By Yerim Heo

INU hosted the 2022 Fall Farewell Ceremony for Exchange Students. Ninety exchange students joined the event and received a certificate of completion as proof of their studying at INU.

“My experience in Korea was unforgettable thanks to INU!” (Goodbye speech by Nuevo Leon student from Mexico)

2023 Graduate School Admission Orientation for international students

By Jeehee Sung

INU hosted a Graduate School admission orientation for international students interested in MA and doctoral degree courses for 2023. Professor Kwangsup Shin (left), Dean of the Graduate School of Logistics, introduced courses during the orientation.

INU Graduate School provides various scholarships to international students.

For more details:

Graduate School: gradinu@inu.ac.kr

Graduate School of Logistics:

ksshin@inu.ac.kr

TCS (Trilateral Cooperation Secretariat) and INU signed an Agreement on Internship Program 2023

By June Choi

TCS Secretary-General OU Boqian (right) and INU President Jong-tae Park (left) signed the Internship Program Agreement.

The MOU allows INU to recommend students from China, Japan, and Korea to work as full-time paid interns at the TCS headquarter, in Jongro during the spring semester and summer break of 2023.

TCS is an international organization to promote common prosperity among China, Japan and Korea.

International student experience “Kimchi Making day” with the staff and student volunteers from INU

By JungHyun Joo

INU held a “Kimchi Making Day” to make Kimchi which was later donated to the Welfare Centers for underprivileged residents of the Incheon. Traditionally, Korean families and neighbors gather to make and share kimchi for winter.

Despite the chilly weather, the activity attracted many volunteers including staffs, as well as students both domestic and international. It was a great way not only to experience making kimchi but also to be part of, and contribute to the local community, Incheon.

INU and KNAU signs MoU agreement for student/faculty mobility exchange

By Jeehee Sung

A memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between INU and KNAU (Kyrgyz National Agrarian University, Kyrgyz Republic) was signed to share academic research, research exchange, and research cooperation.

The Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. Kang, Hyunchul (left) visited KNAU on Dec. 9, 2022 to sign the MoU and discuss practical collaboration between two institutes.

